TENS OF THOUSANDS IN PERIL BEHIND RIVER LEVEES

700,000 TO BE HOMELESS

drowned when a rescue barge overturned at Paducah, Ky. With property damage estimated at more than $10,000,000 in Cincinnati alone, officials predicted that the total loss for the whole 11-state flood area would be far in excess of $300,000,000.

And on every levee, from relief authorities and army engineers, came the warning:

"The worst is yet to come."

Wholesale evacuations of flood-sieged towns in Tennessee, western Kentucky, northeastern Missouri, Arkansas, and Mississippi signaled the greatest mass flood in history.

From Pittsburgh in the north, where anxious crowds watched the flood relentlessly spread over the edge of the billion-dollar business district, to the crest of the deluge sweeping into the Mississippi river beyond Cairo, Ill., a panorama of watery devastation extended mile on mile.

SUPER FLOOD DEE

In the lower Mississippi valley where 600,000 were made homeless in 1927, authorities warned the big test of the great waters of 1937 was the 280-mile stretch of the Mississippi after the 1927 deluge.

"A super flood is in its way," came the grim assurance from Lt. Col. Eugene B. Dwyer, district chief of the U. S. Army engineers, at Memphis, Tenn.

General Dwyer predicted that stage of the Mississippi in 1937 was 10 to 15 feet higher than records in the past in the region of 1910 and 1927.

President Roosevelt yesterday warned that the Mississippi was sweeping through 11 states, out of the 100,000,000 people in the United States, $700,000,000 could be required.

"Step on it,"

700,000 TO LOSE HOMES

The President said out word that the flood, originally predicted to be a 100,000,000 people in the United States, $700,000,000 could be required.

Mary L. Hopkins, Works Progress administrator, estimated 600,000 to 700,000 would be homeless by Thursday.

Red Cross officials also warned that the flood would be a 100,000,000 people in the United States, $700,000,000 could be required.

At midnight, Hopkins reported to the President that conditions at Louisville, Ky., were slightly improved, with the Ohio River at 100 feet above flood stage. The Ohio River at 100 feet above flood stage. The Ohio River at 100 feet above flood stage.

In Louisville, Ky., United States army troops moved toward the city, which is isolated by a 100,000,000 people in the United States, $700,000,000 could be required.

FEVERISH PANIC, FAMINE Governor Chandler said that the federal government state and local authorities could not combat panic, famine and hunger in the wake of the city's worst flood in history.

Two thousand Kentucky National Guardsmen were on emergency duty in the stricken area.

Lieutenant A. Barton of the 78th Air Corps, after a tour inspection of Louisville was said to have reported 100,000 people, many of whom were in danger of starvation.

Safety Engineer Dunlap Wakefield of Louisville renewed orders that homes be sealed.

As the turbulent waters plunged south, passengers near Cairo, Ill., disembarked the $2,000,000 Bismarck-New Madrid floodway levee, sending millions of gallons of water.

POLLUTE WATER RATIONS FACING CINCINNATI'S FEARS

Cincinnati, Jan. 26—This flood-besieged city watched the swollen Ohio river continue its inexorable rise to the 80-year mark today as the water supply for its 500,000 residents became more serious hourly.

What little drinking water that remained was polluted, the health department declared, advising that it be boiled.

First the supply was reduced to 100 gallons a day per person. Today the ration was cut to 50 gallons a day. City Manager C. A. Dykstra, before leaving city hall for his first sleep in 36 hours, said it might be necessary to reduce the supply to 15 gallons a day.

TEN FEET ABOVE

Meanderings of W. C. Deveraux said he believed the crest had been reached when yellow flood waters were up to the unprecedented height of 80 feet at 1 a. m. This was 20 feet above the previous record. The river, at 7 a. m., stood at 80 feet, after several days to 78 feet.

"The fall will be so slow," Deveraux said, as he observed to rain in sight, "that we will need a magnifying glass to see it a day or so."

HUMOROUS ASPECTS

The drinking water situation, serious as it was, had the humorous aspects. A woman who used the previous supply to bathe in a tub, said she had to use the new supply to bathe in a tub.

ENHANCED HIS SYSTEM

"My system has been a unified system in operation tomorrow," he announced. "I will not permit any person to use the city's water supply except those who carry the proper permit."

Death Plot Victims

The victims of a death plot in New York City have been identified. The plot involved several people who were involved in a scheme to kill a prominent figure. The victims of the plot have been identified and are being cared for by the authorities.

Marie Hucot, 23, New Haven entertainer, and Frank Kroupa, 22, were found dead in his car. Carbon monoxide was believed responsible. Today the Boston Evening American learned that "knockout drops" had first been given the couple. In a raid at North Haven, Ct., early today, two men and two girls were arrested. Officials see a murder plot.

PERKINS HITS MOTORS STAND IN STRIKE

The public interest is more important than General Motors' private interest.

Miss Perkins' statement today put a new face on the strike situation. Hereafter, administration officials have scrupulously refrained from taking any sides in the case, endeavoring only to bring them together.

Miss Perkins, don't you think that's giving General Motors a bit of a boost?

And the labor secretary continued: "No, I'm not giving General Motors a bit of a boost. I'm just administering the law."

5 Hurt in Picket Line Clash at Detroit

Detroit, Jan. 26 (AP)—Police and pickets clashed again today in the General Motors strike. Five persons being hurt as union men sought to prevent officers from entering the Cadillac unit of the corporation here.

The clash followed closely upon a disturbance last night at Anderson, Mich., where three persons were hurt. The Cadillac unit of the plant, which is a General Motors subsidiary, was called by the United Automobile Workers of America. It was one of the plants the corporation planned to "reopen" soon.

One woman and four men hurt in the clash. The Cadillac plant was removed by union organizers before the private treatment.

At the Fordwood unit of Cadillac there was no violence as about 200 members of the Fordwood plant went back to work. The picket line was established there.

General Motors to Give $10,700,000 to Employees

New York, Jan. 26 (AP)—Despite strike difficulties, $10,700,000 in proceeds of the General Motors Corporation's employee savings and investment plan will be distributed to employees of the corporation, Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., president, announced today.

"Having in view the present situation, with a large majority of the corporation's employees at work, through no fault of their own, every effort is being made to distribute the fund from the current maturing class at the earliest possible moment, to assist them over the emergency," Sloan stated.

His announcement pointed out it was an annual custom to distribute the fund. The plan is a class of which termination each year—this year the class of 1931.

Of the $27,700,000, the sum of $10,700,000 represents an amount paid into the plan by employees while the balance represents a surplus carried over from the previous year. Sloan stated.

"Each participant, who has $100 into the plan, through 1931 now receives $236. Part of the disbursement will be made in cash and part in General Motors common stock."

"There are four new classes of the savings and investment plan set to mature. Fifteen classes have already been completed."

TREAT A COLD AS IF YOU MEAN IT!

Don't Fool Around with Half-way Measures and Invite Serious Complications!

One of the worst things you can do is "put around" with a cold. The so-called "common cold" causes more serious sicknesses and more prolonged absence from work than you realize. It is a mistake to treat a cold lightly. A cold calls for a cold treatment and not a "cure-all." A cold calls for internal treatment. For a cold or a flu, the best thing you can do is take a cold or a flu. For a cold or a flu, the best thing you can do is take a cold or a flu. For a cold or a flu, the best thing you can do is take a cold or a flu.

First of all, Bromo Quinine is a cold tablet, made expressly for the treatment of colds. It is a cold tablet, made expressly for the treatment of colds. It is a cold tablet, made expressly for the treatment of colds.

Second, it relieves the headache and fever. Fourth, it tones the system and brings forth a healthy glow. Bromo Quinine tablets now come sugar-coated as well as plain. The sugar-coated are exactly the same as the regular, except that the tablets are coated with sugar for palatability.

Play safe in your treatment of a cold! The moment you feel the first symptom, go right to your drugstore for a package of Groves' Laxative Bromo Quinine.

Start taking the tablets immediately, two every four hours. That action will usually break up a cold in 24 hours.

Bromo Quinine contains nothing harmful and is safe to take. It is the drugstore for Groves' Laxative Bromo Quinine and must upon getting what you ask for!

The few pennies' cost may save you a lot in medical bills.

Hygienic Upholstery

PATRONS SELDOM THINK OF SANITATION IN TAXICAB UPHOLSTERY . . . yet several City Health Departments consider it so vital that they have imposed upholstery restrictions to protect public health. IN NEW YORK, FOR EXAMPLE, Standard Taxicab specifications require UPHOLSTERY: No upholstery . . . shall be permitted in any licensed taxicab unless it shall be made of leather, or similar non-absorbent washable material.

New York City Police Department

DR. HERMAN N. BUNDENSEN, PRESIDENT OF THE CHICAGO BOARD OF HEALTH, reports that tests made in the Chicago laboratories showed the average bacterial count in fabricated materials to be over four times greater than in leather materials. This survey proves leather or imitation leather more sanitary than fabric.

DR. M. J. ROSENAU, DIRECTOR OF THE HYGIENIC LABORATORY, U. S. Public Health and Marine Hospital, world famous authority on bacteriology, has written three volumes concerning "Disinfection and Disinfectants" in which, regarding fabricated upholstery, he claims:

"If the article is covered with . . . pervious fabric, the ONLY EFFICIENT way of rendering it safe is by soaking the cushions through and through with a 5% solution of formalin and leaving them in an enclosed space for 24 hours."

CONTRASTED WITH THE CLEANING OF FABRICATED UPHOLSTERY, whose minute multicellular structure tenaciously retains thousands of germ-laden dust and dirt particles, leather or imitation leather can obviously be easily cleaned and kept clean.

In All Checker Cabs

LEATHER-TYPE UPHOLSTERY IS STANDARD EQUIPMENT. We demand it to safeguard your health. Your health is your wealth and OUR duty is to help you avoid dangerous exposure to germ-laden fabrics.

15,000 IN FIELD AS COMMUNITY FUND DRIVE OPENS

GOAL HERE SET
AT $4,160,000
FOR CHARITY

After a stirring Symphony Hall meeting, attended by more than 2000 persons, Greater Boston's 1937 Community Fund campaign was off to a propitious start today—its goal substantial oversubscription of a $4,160,000 quota.

Of the quota, $60,000 will go at once to aid flood victims in the mid-West and South.

The bulk of the money to be raised, however, is for support of 134 philanthropic agencies within Boston's metropolitan area.

These agencies, not dependent on the public treasury, render indispensable services to more than 300,000 needy men, women and children annually.

15,000 IN FIELD
They include hospitals, clinics, social centers, nursing agencies, homes for crippled children and scores of similar institutions.

A Community Fund campaign staff of 15,000 workers took the field today.

The Symphony Hall meeting which launched the drive was addressed by former Mayor William L. Phillips, President of the City of Boston, and Mayor Mansfield.

Mayor Mansfield was present as was Public Safety Commissioner Paul G. Kirk, representing Governor Hallett.

Speaker Cameron pointed out in his address that while the drive is a day does not end with temporary alleviation of human misery.

He said he said he said to rehabilitate the unfortunate on a permanent basis.

He continued, in part: "We no longer talk of victimhood. We tackle it. We and women of skill in this great art approach understanding, the most unassuming conditions and meet them through with the light of a trained, redemptive, friendly interest."

They open the doors of neglected minds and raise latent character to breathe, grow, they lead the young from thoughtless conduct that spawns crime, to more satisfying and constructive pursuits. They help disheartened mothers to restore the dignity of the home.

CIVIC VICTORY
"They teach the slightest hand the ways of self support, restoring the beaten soul, giving back life that later lives of itself and becomes a life-giving center for others."

"All this, and more besides, is what we mean by redemptive and preventive helplessness."

"Now you are going out on the last, and most glowing phase of your crusade—a crusade that leaves no wounds, no bitter tears behind."

"Your return in triumph will be a civic victory for this whole region."

Convicted Quintet In Fraud Appeal

Appeal of five defendants convicted in connection with the Pabst stock fraud case started today in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals before Judges George H. Bingham, Scott Wilson and James H. Morton, Jr.

The defendants are William L. Jarvis, Samuel L. Gaine, Robert Pollock, Morris B. Shuman and Arthur Wanda.

Jarvis and Gaine were sentenced to five years and the other three were given a year and a day on charges of mail fraud and violation of the Securities and Exchange Act.

STAR WITNESS IN BROOKLINE CASE GUARDED

Betty Spinner, now viewed as the trump card in the Brookline investigation of alleged police graft and vice, is under guard in western Massachusetts and will remain there until the case comes to trial.

Defendant Attorney Edward H. Dewing announced today.

When in being, Mrs. Spinner is scheduled to testify before the grand jury tomorrow or Thursday have been abandoned as a result of threats made to her.

This charge was made for her protection, Dewing explained, adding that he had sufficient evidence to obtain indictments without her.

Mrs. Spinner is the wife of Harry Spinner, now serving a term at the Federal penitentiary at Lewisburg, Pa., for his part in the interstate transportation of a 15-year-old girl, who was traveling in a Brookline apartment, in the employ of Al Scheinfeld.

Scheinfeld is also serving a term at the same prison and because both of them have now refused to aid the Norfolk county authorities, they are expected to be indicted in the Brookline case, which centers around alleged payment of graft to policemen.

"Every protection possible will be given the witnesses, who will go before the grand jury during the next two days," said Dewing. "I have made arrangements for this extreme precaution with Judge Edward F. Hanly and the county commissioners."

A prominent Brookline town official will testify before the grand jury tomorrow and will then leave his resignation to the town authorities, it was learned.

Members of the police vice squad of Scheinfeld, N. Y., have also been called as grand jury witnesses.

Scheinfeld was released from custody in that city after Brookline police had vouched for his character and reputation as a furniture salesman, which was Scheinfeld's cover for vice operations.

District Attorney Dewing, just returned from a 21-day cruise in the tropics, today prepared to call some 25 witnesses before the grand jury. The indictments returned by the grand jury will not be secret, he announced.

At least a half-dozen persons whose names have been prominently linked with the Boston sporting and underworld, will be among those to testify, he indicated.

DRAMATIC PHOTOS SHOW TRAGEDY IN FLOOD-TORN AREAS

PLENTY OF WATER—BUT NO SODAS, TODAY! IT'S MAIN STREET PORTSMOUTH, O., COMPLETELY UNDER WATER.

A WATER-FILLED RESIDENTIAL SECTION OF LOUISVILLE, KY. NOTE WATER UP TO THE SECOND STORIES OF HOUSES.

"GRAB THAT POLE, MISTER, OR YOU MIGHT END UP IN THE COUNTRY!" Racing current at Portsmouth, Ohio, put these men in danger. "Flood proof" wall built last year, had broken. This small The Ohio river was coming in on the town. The $1,000,000 street became a raging river. International News Photographs Service.

BOY FROM CINCINNATI LOWLANDS SEES THAT HIS PET DOG IS SAVED. In the background are flood waters, but this lad with his dog other members of his family are back in boats trying to save and much of the family belongings are on high ground. The more of the family belongings.

DEBRIS JAMMED AGAINST IRON BRIDGE AT LAWRENCEBURG, IND., THROWING WATER BACK ON SURROUNDING COUNTRY.

FEAR OF PESTILENCE ADDS DANGER TO DRAMA OF FLOOD'S RAVAGES. She was a good little trooper, even when driven from her home in Wheeling, W. Va., by the raging Ohio, but the inoculation needle brings tears from Evelyn Jean Hartung as Dr. Reece M. Pedicord, Wheeling health commissioner, gives her injection.

Treatment of Accident Victims

By ROYAL W. COFFLAND, M.D.

NOT so long ago I told you about a medical convention where there was a discussion of common industrial accidents. The importance of early care of the so-called "minor injuries" was urged.

6000 Fans Thrilled By Savage Bout At Mechanics

By SAM COHEN

Apologies may again be in order today from some of our ring-side columnists, it appears, after Max Marek of Chicago gave Al McCoy the toughest battle of his brilliant career while losing a 10 round decision in a battle that will live long in memories of the 6000 customers who saw it.

True, it was Marek that was slugging, on the reports of a columnist who had the right of mind even going into the sixth round when McCoy forced him to a wild land and then shot in a right cross that knocked off Marek's chin with the force of a cannon charge.

Mark was leading in the early rounds and completely shocked the ring-side gathering when he drove McCoy through the ropes in the third round. McCoy flung on the ropes of the ring and flung himself over the top rope.

SONJA SAYS THAT SHE HAS APPLIED FOR her first papers of American citizenship. The reporters, impressed, scribbled eagerly. It removes the necessity for double payment of income taxes in Oslo and Washington.

Lewis Still Carries On

Gambling Has Big Room

By JACK CONWAY

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 26.

"IS EVERYBODY HAPPY?" asked Ted Lewis, high lilted tragedian of melody as he directed his shapely revue at the swanky Royal Palm Club on the shores of Biscayne Bay and alone in the heart of the city.

"I am down here, despondent, a little happiness and sunshine went on leave as 30 Broadway beauties kept time to the lively tunes of Ted's famous band.

The Junior Birdmen Of America

By J. J. Hays
Boston Wing Commander

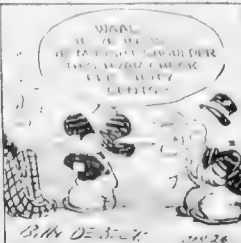

Good sportsmanship is almost invariably shown in Junior Birdmen contests and the competition involves the building of solid replicas of the Douglas D-28 and the award of 18 prizes for the best of these on Saturday, February 20 is proving no exception to the general rule.

IN RAIL FINANCE HEARING

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

Washington, Jan. 26.—The New York Stock Exchange is willing to draft a new rule prohibiting members of its board of governors from voting on the listing of any security in which they have any financial interest. Richard Whitney, former president, testified today at the Senate rail inquiry.

He said that the exchange had agreed to the rule, but that it was not yet in effect. He also said that the exchange was considering other rules to improve its operations.

A HUNDRED TIMES your money back... if you have a vacant room

With all this talk of "Double your money back," here's how to make that vacant room bring back 25, 50 or even a hundred times your money. Figure it out for yourself. The small cost of an American-Advertiser Room-for-Rent Ad represents but a fraction of a room's rental over a period of weeks, months, years. A room, for example, bringing in as little as $4.00 or $5.00 per week in the course of a year will bring back 100 times a $3.92 expenditure for a Want Ad to fill that room. In fact, your investment for Want Ads is more than returned in the first few weeks your room is occupied. Concentrate your listings in the American-Advertiser and GET RESULTS.

"Thanks very much for putting in my advertisement in the American-Advertiser. I received a number of inquiries and secured a room the first day my ad appeared."

"I secured a room the very first afternoon my ad appeared in your paper."
